

Green Hairstreak

Callophrys rubi

Regional Priority: Medium
Of Conservation Concern in Nottinghamshire

Distribution 2000 - 2004

Foodplants

On calcareous soils: Common Bird's-foot-trefoil (Lotus corniculatus) and Common Rock Rose (Helithemum nummularium).

On heathland: Gorse (Ulex europeaus), Broom (Cytisus scoparius) and Dyers Geenweed (Genista tinctoria).

Elsewhere: Dogwood (Cornus sanguinea), Buckthorn (Rhamnus cathartica) and Bramble (Rubus fruticosus).

Produced for FWAG Nottingham by Simon Jenkins, East Midlands Branch Butterfly Conservation, December 2005
www.eastmidlands-butterflies.org.uk

Habitat

Calcareous grassland, heathland, railway cuttings, old quarries, rough scrubby grassland, woodland rides and clearings..

